

New Self-ID, Inclusive Culture Webinars

Registration is now open for two new EARN webinars in September on strategies for promoting self-identification and developing inclusive workplaces:

- Creating an Inclusive Culture: Increasing Self-Identification, Sept. 18 from 1:00-2:00 p.m. EST
 - Learn about emerging practices from private-sector companies for encouraging people with disabilities to self-identify; get tips and tools for hiring managers; and learn strategies for fostering connections with disability organizations.
- Do Ask, Do Tell: Creating a Disability-Inclusive Workplace, Encouraging Employees with Disabilities to Self-Identify, Sept. 22 from 12:00-1:00 p.m. EST
 - Learn how employers can build an inclusive workplace where employees feel safe disclosing that they have a disability, while also meeting the new federal requirements for government contractors.

There is no cost for registering. HRCI credits will be available to participants.

For more information and employer resources, visit www.AskEARN.org.

